

Ghana Bioinnovation Workshop Kibi Presbyterian College of Education 6 December 2022

'Bioinnovation in Healthcare Delivery'

The Ghana Bioinnovation Workshop is designed to foster conversations between healthcare providers and engineers, academics and entrepreneurs to create an understanding of the resources currently available in rural clinics and hospitals, and to discuss what additional resources would be most beneficial to produce.

- 8:30 Welcome address – His Majesty Osagyefuo Amoatia Ofori Panin (Okyenhene)
- 9:00 Introduction/Purpose
Osabarima Owusu Baafi Aboagye III, Chief, Akyem Dwenase
Professor Lee Makowski, Northeastern University, Boston
Dr. Thelma Asare, Capital Women's Care, Baltimore
- 9:30 Regional hospital representatives –
Dr. Akoto Apaw, Medical Director, Regional Hospital, Koforidua
- 10:00 District hospital representative –
Dr. Richard Nii Dodoo, Medical Superintendent of Kyebi Hospital
- 10:30 COFFEE BREAK
- 11:00 Government perspective –
Dr. Philip Bannor, Registrar of HeFRA
- 11:30 Nurses and Midwives –
Eunice Kyerewaa Akwei, Public Health Nurse, Abuakwa South
Alex Dartey Afrifa, Chief Nurse Anaesthetist, University of Cape Coast
- 12:15 LUNCH
- 1:30 District health representatives -
Rodalyn Adda Kyei-Yamoah, Superintendent, Abuakwa South
Divine Afua Dede Nartey, Health Service Administrator, Kyebi
- 2:00 Panel of Healthcare Providers – Moderator: Dr. Thelma Asare
Dr. Robert Djagblatey, Korle Bu Teaching Hospital
Dr. Akoto Apaw, Medical Director, Regional Hospital, Koforidua;
Dr. Richard Nii Dodoo, Medical Superintendent of Kyebi Hospital;
Eunice Kyerewaa Akwei, District Public Health Nurse, Abuakwa South
- 3:00 Open discussion/conclusion

